

Team cornhole:

Doors open at 7am

Registration will be at 9 am.

There will also be a Social Doubles event for anyone attending not on a team.

Entry to the Team event is $200 per team. Paying the Top 4 Spots

Socials event is $30 per team. Paying the Top 5 spots

7 player team format.

If your team wins 3 of the 5 events in a match, that is one win. We do the entire 5 events best 2 out of 3.

So if you're the singles player, you play one game, win or lose, wait on the other 4 events, see who won 3 or more out of the 5, and that is match 1. Each round is best 2 out of 3 matches. Tourney Single elimination no losers bracket.

1 match consists of:

1) 1 player plays in a regular singles game to 21.

2) 1 player plays in a singles match to 21 on the airmail box. 3 in the hole, 1 on the box. it is 1ft by 1ft

3) 1 player plays on our tic tac toe boards, it 3 foot wide, 4 foot tall, and sets at the same angle as regular boards. It has nine holes. Each player gets 9 bags, first one to make it in a hole gets that hole. Plays just like regular tic tac toe. If no one wins with nine bags, start over, must get 3 across up and down or diagonal in 9 bag attempt.

4) 2 play as a team in a doubles game to 21

5) 2 play as a team on the challenger boards (only 2 feet wide) one game to 21

Where are the Toughest Cornhole players from ?!?!?!

You think your league, weekly draw, or player market has the most talent around?

come find out on February 28th, 2010.

Team Columbus won the last event that was held in New Kastle IN, and they will be defending their title. They were managed by Robert Bennent, but he didnt play!

Adam Stables managed Team Canary who took 2nd. He also didn't play!

The Cult came in 3rd.

Hope to see team Canary there.

The Cult will definitely be present.

Here's a list so far of some of the folks planning on bringing their best from their area.

Brent Ellis - Indiana - This cats the real deal with his team placing 2nd at the last event, as well as Brent Placing second at the Chicago Top Gun Turkey Hole.

Michael Juarez - Columbus OH - New Face in the ACO circles

Ryan Labelle - Spartanburg SC - His boys pulled off some major upsets in the ACO top 16 at Fountain Square this year

Tom McMurray - Pittsburgh PA - Bringing his secret weapon Ron Kugel who upset Stagge and Short in the Cleveland Top Gun

Shawn Cigar-O Overmyer - Plans to put Freemont on the Map

Gregory Vajda - VA Beach - Representing the Beach Bums in the game

Kevin Warner & Sherri Eggleton - Indiana - Kevin and Dale Smith put the Smack down on the Dawg and D just last night in the Blind Draw Finals in C Bus

Dale Smith - KY - Will tell ya everyone is Toast mane when his team shows up, TOAST !

You think you have the toughest players in the nation from your area? Come find out!